MODDISON FAMILY.

My father, Robert Moddison, the first of the family to settle in Peel, was born in Toronto. His father (whose name I don't know) and mother died when he was only a baby, and he was brought up by John Modeland and his wife, who lived on lot 12, Con. 3, East, Ching.

Robert Moddison grew up on this farm. Married Mary Martin, a daughter of Henry Martin, of Chinguacousy, lot , Con. 3, East, Ching. After his marriage he lived on lot 23, Con. 2, where Joshua Modeland's farm was. Then moved to Tullamore and farmed there, on the Albion side of the line, I think. He is buried at Mt. Olivet, died in 1867 or 1869. He was a Wesleyan Methodist, and was superintendent of the Sunday School at Dixon's Church, and taught in the Sunday School at every church he attended. He always wore a silk hat to church, a fine man of the old school, dignified and courteous. Children of Robert & Mary Moddison:

John Moddison, grew up at Tullamore, later farmed on my father's place (Robt. Moddison). Then he went to live with Isaac Modeland, on the 3rd line, lot 12. When he married, he bought the farm at #10, Con. 1, West, Ching. in 1889. He married Lavina Perrin, who was born right above Stanley Mills, near the old cedar swamp, a daughter of Matthew Perrin. Methodist. Liberal. No children. Died in Brampton, where he had
